TRUST US,

This isn't your regular yearbook.
It's proof that YOU MADE IT THROUGH.
Every day felt like an historic event,
yet you stayed focused,
adjusted through all the changes,
and even flourished.

It was hard not seeing friends every day to coordinate outfits for homecoming and wish week,
but you found ways to connect, like the senior class,
who planned a secret spirit week of their own.

It was hard to be stuck at home so much,
but you made it through by watching
your favorite anime shows
Naruto and Yuri on Ice,
like juniors Mykal Davis and Ram Ngai.

When we faced more than just noise,
we had to be strong. Together, we grieved Principal Aleshia Armour's sudden death,
and remembered her words:
"True resilience is adapting to change
and pushing through anxieties and fears."

And we adapted to honor her legacy like Ms. Sybil Booker as she stepped up from AP to interim principal.

This is not your regular yearbook.
It's proof that you can face anything.

You've made it this far.
Nothing can bring you down now.

TRUST US, YOU'LL MAKE IT THROUGH THE NOISE
