

ALL IN ONE GAME

Whether you're a coach, a player, a fan, a cheerleader, or a band member, you all have something in common: the game. Find out what it's like for each of these participants during the homecoming game.

VANESSA BALLINES (11, MARCHING BAND FLUTIST): "I was very excited to be the homecoming game and ready to perform."

AMBER LYLE (10, CHEERLEADER): "The games at Stutler are pretty full and there's lots of energy here. It just makes me feel excited."

ANDREW SHAVER (Offensive Coordinator): "What has worked so far? What hasn't worked? How do we adjust?"

SOPHIA GUAGLIARDO (10, NUTS): "I don't understand why the crowd is never into it, just show some school spirit. Enjoy the game, have some fun, mingle with NUTS kids, and have a good time."

AMBER LYLE (10, CHEERLEADER): "I'm cold as the night goes on, but it's just a nice experience to be there at the game."

VANESSA BALLINES (11, MARCHING BAND FLUTIST): "If the crowd doesn't hype themselves up, then it's our job to keep it going and bring them back up no matter the score."

TULGA BAASANJAV (11, Kicker): "The only thing that matters right now is beating the other team, playing hard, and having fun. Let's get the bread boys."

SAMMIE SHELLMAN (12, Poms): "Homecoming is one of our most important performances. I always gets super nervous in front of a large crowd."

SAMMIE SHELLMAN (12, Poms): "The performance was a lot of fun because of our collaboration with cheer. Afterwards, I always feel good because of the adrenaline."

VANESSA BALLINES (11, MARCHING BAND FLUTIST): "We've never done anything like we did before, so I was nervous and knew I had to perform well in front of students, parents, and teachers all in the bleachers."

ANDREW SHAVER (Offensive Coordinator): "Let's keep these guys together and fighting to the end. As long as there's time on the clock we fight. Play the next play"

ISABELLA LIVITS (11, BLAZER FANATIC): "I'm really into it because you just want them to win, so you feel the adrenaline and you don't even notice the time fly by."

TULGA BAASANJAV (11, Kicker): "Since I don't play every snap, I'm just always thinking, 'You're gonna get it. Let's get this bread.'"

ANDREW SHAVER (Offensive Coordinator): "Are we forgetting anything at school?"
