

here comes the SUN

Marcus Crawford '19 spreads his light throughout the school despite past troubles

By Evie Cuffaro, Mia Schmanski, Samantha Sarmiento, and Estella Barrett

Marcus Crawford '19 is not a kid you want to get involved with. He's a troublemaker. Or at least he used to be. He's the kid who messes around in class, if he decides to show up. Or at least he used to. He's the kid who moved to Monarch sophomore year, leaving the "used to" behind. Now, Marcus Crawford is your best friend. Now, Marcus Crawford is friends with literally everyone. He points at you in the hallway and gives you a hug everytime he sees you. He always calls you by your full name just because he likes the sound of it. He never forgets to ask you how your day is going, even if it takes walking across B-Hall traffic to do so. Marcus Crawford is now a senior at Monarch and is just shy of a ray of sunshine.