1 SCREAM & SHOUT: The senior class pushes against the safety tape trying to get closer to the action on the court. As it got closer and closer to the end of the showdown some students started to get excited for the "do it" cheer that reoccurs annually throughout the year. "My favorite part of Showdown is definitely the do it cheer at the end. I love it because its just a tradition and its so cool that everyone can come togetherson one thing and go crazy..." senior Sofia Accompa said. 2 DOWN N' DIRTY: The competition between each grades was shown on the field during the powder puff game on Sept. 19. During the sophomore and freshman game this was exemplified through freindly competition. The sophomore team wrote "#FTF" on their faces, meaning friends through football. 3 HIT 'EM HIGH: The sophomore boys go up for a spike during the highly anticipate ruff & tuff volleyball game. Freshman class fell short in the end due to the header skills of the sophomore boys. 4 VROOM VROOM: Sophomore Riley Baker tries to ride a tricycle as a part of the obstacle course. "Leading up to showdown I wasn't nervous at all and I was actually excited," said Baker. The sophomores went up against the freshman, pulling out with a victory. 5 KINGDOM: Principal Dr. Rex Corr stands towards the senior class debuting his matching Batman shirt. As the senior class roars many students cover their mouths out of excitement. "I'm going to miss all the hype and noise beofre the games kick off. It's awesome that we can come together as a school..." senior Cade Cushman said. 6 P-A-R-T-Y: The newbees in school take in their very first Showdown events. "I loved Showdown. It was so much fun and I can not wait for three more years of it," freshman Ethan Henak said. Henak looks on as the flag races take place. 7 RAIN: As confetti is shot from cannons the junior class begins to chant differnt cheers. "My favorite part about Showdown was our whole class being together and everyone cheering together," said junior Gracelyn Petruskas. The juniors finished just shy of the seniors, with a difference of 29 points.
