

▲ The annual dodgeball tournament is another way to raise money for Bald for Bucks. "Knowing that this tournament helped Bald for Bucks was amazing! It was something really easy and fun to participate in and it all goes to a good cause!" James Goering '19 said. The teams raised over $1200.

▲ There were many thrilling moments during the tournament. "My favorite part of the tournament was beating the opposing team when I was in a 1 versus 3 situation," Brendan Flewelling '19 said. Flewelling and his teammates celebrated after winning their games.

▲ Many different ideas were used in order to win games. "Our main strategy was to go after one person on the other team at the same time so they couldn't dodge all the balls," Jayce Brehe '20 said. Brehe's plan often resulted in opponents getting hit.

▲ The dodgeball tournament is an exciting event that all grades are able to participate in. "I decided to join dodgeball this year because it was my last chance and I wanted to have every experience that Rampart offers!" Julia Garcia '19 said. Garcia joined as many activities as she could to make her senior year great!

Many students plan to return to the tournament in future years. "It feels good knowing I supported a good cause. I just want to continue to do it," Jaydon Young '21 said. Young plans to pursue the tournament with his same team next year.

There were many aspects to the dodgeball tournament. "Playing with the team and getting other people out was super fun," Andrew Peltier '21 said. Students enjoyed the thrill of dodging balls and throwing them.

DODGE FOR ALL [Dodgeball Tournament]

The annual dodgeball tournament not only raised money, but also raised spirits. In order to help contribute towards Bald for Bucks, this tournament is held every year in the gymnasium. "It's always great, raising over $1200 was the largest amount ever for a dodgeball tournament, it feels good looking at the bigger picture," David Peters '20 said. A total of fourteen teams played this year, making it one of the largest dodgeball competitions in school history. The students joined this tournament for the good cause, and also for the fun involved with it. All players went into the tournament wanting a good outcome. "At the end, when it was down to the finals, it was more intense then any sporting event that I have ever gone to while being at Rampart," Arianna Colella '19 said. At the end of a hard fought day, the DodgeFathers won the title. Some of the members on the team have been after the title for four years. "It felt so unbelievably amazing to win after four years because that's been our team's goal for such a long time," Brendan Flewelling '19' said. Overall the dodgeball tournament was a huge success for the participants, viewers, and community. This was an enjoyable experience for everyone involved. story by ashleigh decker and devyn jones
