

CLASS OF 2019

Principal Greg Gotchey was asked for his take on senior sunrise and seniors at Chap in general.

WHAT PART DOES SENIOR SUNRISE PLAY IN CHAP CULTURE?

The senior sunrise is a symbolic start to the year. It is a great opportunity for the senior class to come together to establish their legacy.

MOST MEMORABLE MOMENT?

The most memorable moment for me is always seeing the newest senior class return for their final year. The summer without you all is boring. I love that the halls come to life with all of the students returning and the senior sunrise is the kickoff to the year.

WHAT IS DIFFERENT ABOUT THE CLASS OF 2019?

The class of 2019 is similar to previous classes because you have all had such an important role in establishing the culture of Chap Family. I think I will remember the class of 2019 for leadership and for the spirit that this class has brought to Chaparel. This class has handled the pressures of high school with grace, humility and dignity.

FOR THOSE WHO ARE EXCITED

Sr. CATALINA SOLBERG

"Senior sunrise made me excited for the last year. My friends and I get to spend it together before we all leave."

1. WELCOMING THE SENIORS, Sr. Chloe Croissant kicks off the senior sunrise. "My favorite part was looking around and seeing how excited my classmates were for this upcoming year. The most memorable parts were how excited everyone was and Coach Ketter's speech," said Croissant, photo by Taylor 2. JUMPING IN THE AIR, Sr. Katie Hogan poses for the senior sunrise photo. On August 8 the seniors met early in the morning to prepare for the new year. "My favorite part was catching up with friends that I hadn't seen over summer and reconnecting with my class," said Hogan, photo by Taylor 3. SMILING WITH HER CLASSMATES, Sr. Ashley Nesland runs from her friends. "My favorite part about the senior sunrise was the beginning. It was exciting to see everyone put up in the parking lot early in the morning, and run down to the field where there was music blasting, and everyone was catching up or dancing. Finally being a senior feels great!" said Nesland, photo by Taylor 4. PREPARING TO ADDRESS THE SENIORS, Coach Rob Johnson smiles looking at the class of 2019. "Each year it amazes me how quickly each class enters and leaves these halls. It always brings on emotions," said Johnson, photo by Taylor 5. LAUGHING AT COACH ROB JOHNSON'S STORY, Sr. Ashley Stafford sits around with her friends. "The most memorable part was taking the picture

LET THERE BE LIGHT

Senior sunrise is a time for all upcoming seniors to come together and reconnect with their friends and teachers after a summer apart. Their high school years seem to have gone by in an instant, as they start on the beginning of the end.

IT'S A TIME FOR REFLECTION

As the seniors sit together and watch the sun come up, they look back on their underclassmen years, when they looked forward to this very moment, and look ahead to the memories to come.

TO THOSE WHO COME TOGETHER

someone to INSPIRE

Football coach Jeffery Keaton talks about the senior class

"I love the morning so I thought it was really an awesome experience. I also thought about how these kids don't really understand yet what lies ahead of them and how fun the journey will be," said Keaton.

"I really liked that they had donuts and Sunny-D because food is a great thing." Sr. Addie Almeida.

"A necessity for senior sunrise would be my friends and the staff! That was there." Sr. Grace Huber

"I think that friends are a necessity for senior sunrise because there's no point in going if there aren't good friends to share a willy." Sr. Angela Howell
