Lockers are a crucial part of student's lives each and every day. In fact, Cresthill is the only middle school in Douglas County that has lockers. There are 1,082 lockers in Cresthill, and each student has their own. They are a place for students to store their belongings in a secure location. Many students also enjoy personalizing their lockers with decorations such as magnets, mirrors, shelves, paper, white boards, and more. Lockers are a very crucial part of Cresthill and the students are very grateful to have them.
