

making an IMPACT

Ambassadors, Allies Club create positive change

Right: At 7:00 AM, ambassadors snapped a selfie with Ms. Stevens before their full day SART training.

Ambassadors Anna Gallagher, 12th, and Max Warnock, 11th, join ninth graders in advisory to share gratitude and practice positive mindsets. Ambassadors build trust and friendships with younger students, whom they mentor through the year.

While reciting a monologue, junior Josh Snyder recites the words of survivors in preparation for a SART presentation.

Delivering lines for a SART presentation, ambassadors Courtney Norris, 12th, and juniors Josh Snyder, Megan Meyer, and Alyssa Alvarez rehearse together.

"I love seeing people come together to fight for others!"
Trevor Presson, 10th

be the CHANGE

love light

Celebrating a day full of passion, learning, and diversity, Justine Tafoya, 11th, Trevor Presson, 10th, Megan Meyer, 11th, Mr. Vanjonack, and Ms. Anne smile in the Cherry Creek High School auditorium.

impact

Sophomore Daisey Solt guards a box of donations after a hygiene drive for Homeward Alliance with Allies Club.

free to be

1) On the ninth grade transition day, ambassadors lead new ninth grade students in helium stick in the gym. 2) Sharing a laugh on National Coming Out Day, Gabi Werst, 11th, Laini Treffer, 11th, construct their buttons during the celebration planned by Allies Club. 3) Sophomores Hannah Martin and Trevor Presson teach others how to use the button maker during the National Coming Out Day celebration, while Shai Burd, 11th, pieces together her creation. 4) Senior and baker in residence Courtney Norris passes a slice of pride cake to Laini Treffer, 11th. 5) Trevor Presson, 10th, demonstrates the button maker for senior Anna Gallagher.

