

1. A Helping Hand Bryce Leafgren (11) points to a fellow golfer to find his out-of-bounds ball. Leafgren reflected on a golf accomplishment, "Going out and shooting 34 on one of my nine holes, which is one under score. As a team I think our greatest accomplishment was winning Regionals together. That was one of Mr. Maio's only regional wins. It was a cool thing to have for him."

2. Senior Salutations Logan Hoffner (12) shakes Peter Grossenbacher's (12) hand in between holes at the City-to-City Championship.

3. Onto the Green At the Regional Tournament, Walker Scott (11) chips onto the green. Scott said, "Peter, Bryce, and Logan are definitely some of my best friends now. I think the van rides and always being next to them made my day a little more special. I think we had a really close brotherhood that helped motivate us to push ourselves, to fit the group because we care about each other so much." Scott finished fourth at the Strasburg tournament and fifth at the Resurrection Christian Tournament. He ended his season with a third place finish at the League Championship and second at the all-state tournament, behind Grossenbacher.

4. Driven Peter Grossenbacher (12) eyes his drive.

Varsity Reflects on Outstanding Season

A number of championships were won during in the 2018 season, the team as a whole and as individuals. Coach Gino Maio said, "It's the most we've won in a long time, maybe even ever." As a team, they placed first at several tournaments including Resurrection Christian, WELCO, Sterling (League), Strasburg, and Regionals. They also took third at the Loveland 4A tournament. Peter Grossenbacher (12) took first place at the City-to-City, Strasburg, WELCO, Loveland 4A, and the Regional tournament. Grossenbacher also took League champ and first at all-state. The team advanced to the state tournament which took place October 1st and 2nd in Boulder, Colorado. At state, the team finished fourth and Grossenbacher placed fifth. "It's (golf) made me a stronger person as far as facing issues within life... bad stuff happens and you kind of have to move on and take the good with the bad," said Grossenbacher.

Coach's Corner

- 1. Preparing for his drive, Logan Hoffner (12) gets a pep-talk from coach Gino Maio. Maio said, "I'm most proud of how hard they worked, they accomplished a lot. It was a record year as a team, with most tournaments won." Hoffner said, "It's an important thing to have a good sense of humor. We joke around a lot and have fun especially thanks to coach Maio."
- 2. Green-side supporter Coach Gino Maio watches Walker Scott (11) compete on the green while taking a sip of coffee on a cold morning. Maio said, "We had a good year, I enjoyed it, we had a lot of fun."
- 3. Success Coach Gino Maio assists Peter Grossenbacher (12) by the green. Grossenbacher said, "Me and Mr. Maio have a great relationship, it's only gotten stronger over the four years. I have a lot of my success due to him."

Logan Hoffner (12)

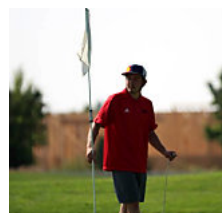

"It takes the willingness to be self motivated because you are the only one who can make you better."

"Practicing outside of the regular school practices, you know going out there (to the course) after school and playing until it gets dark because you put in the hours and see results on the course."

Peter Grossenbacher (12)

Dawson Baucke (12)

"Persistence and not getting frustrated when you fail because everyone is bound to make mistakes. It's just getting out from those mistakes, being able to learn from them, and trying again."
