

1. ASHER KYLE looks for an opportunity to pass to a teammate to get Cimarron's defenders off of him. Shortly after he passed the ball to one of his teammates. photo by R. Smith 2. BRODY SPRINKLE takes a shot while being blocked by a Cimarron player. He made the shot soon afterwards. photo by J.Sparks 3. BRAYDEN MUNROE tries to get away from the defenders on the Cimarron A team while Austin Sehgal sets a pick. Brayden used his arm to push the defender away. photo by J.Sparks

4. OFFENSEMAN HARRISON Hansen, is blocking the ball from being passed to Mtn. Ridge. Soon after the play was called, Sierra started next with the ball. photo by L. Ahrens 5. DRIVING TO the hoop Zion Eyraud, attempts to juke the other teams defender to potentially get a shot off. photo by L. Ahrens 6. PLAYER NUMBER twenty four on Cimarron attempts to steal the ball from Tanner Pett. He attempted to drive around the other player. photo by S. Reiter

BROKEN ANKLES noun

1. : When a players skills cause a player to fall or trip.
 2. : When someone fractures or cracks a bone in their ankle.
- // "Oh shoot, Danny just broke Jakes ankles on the court!"

FIND the hoop

8th grade boys are playing basketball together.

by C. Goulding, A. Glem, W. Judd

Q: What motivates you to play a game?

A: "It is really fun, before a game I will listen to music to get me pumped up," Luke Blevin said.

Q: Why did you choose to do basketball?

A: "Once my mom decided to sign me up for basketball, I have loved it ever since," Blevin said.

Q: What play works the best for your team?

A: "Zone defense because it has us spread out and we can cover more ground," Easton Robertson said.

Q: What part of basketball interests you the most?

A: "The way that teamwork is, it is an important part especially in winning," Robertson said.

Unified BASKETBALL

1. GOING THROUGH the hand tunnel, Drew Evans and his team celebrate a win against Sagewood Middle School. He was walking through the tunnel of friends and family. photo by K.Reiter

2. MAKING A jump shot, Michael Mueller makes a basket for his team. photo by K.Reiter

3. GETTING BACK up from falling, Drew Evans gets up to play some more basketball. Even when he falls, he doesn't let anything stop him. photo by K. Reiter entirely dedicated

"I chose to sign up for basketball because I like it and thought it would be really fun to try out and be a part of the team." photo by A. Glem
Spencer Smith, 07

"I wanted to try basketball because it was my first time trying and it looked really interesting." photo by A. Glem
Aidan Riley, 07

"I decided to sign up because it is great exercise, I get another opportunity to hang out with my friends, and it looked really fun to try." photo by A. Glem
Mason Smith, 07