WRESTLING, SOFTBALL, CHEER-CARMEN NELSCH is a four year varsity cheerleader, but getting there wasn't easy. Her freshman year, Nelsch was introduced to all three sports, before quickly realizing that these sports she loved were not compatible together. There wasn't enough time in the day to play all three.

"I EAT, SLEEP, AND BREATHE CHEER,"

Nelsch said. "But I do miss workouts and I miss swinging a bat, and it's a thing that I fell in love with as well." Nelsch said about not being able to continue playing softball.

Nelsch started as a young child, and the other two sports her freshman year. However, she was soon forced to make a choice between the three in order to not sacrifice her grades. "I know that if I could have found a way to play softball and wrestle and do cheer at the same time that I would be doing it right now," Nelsch said.

"BUT I CAN'T SAY THAT I FELL IN LOVE WITH [SOFTBALL AND WRESTLING] THE WAY I FELL IN LOVE WITH CHEER."

Despite the fact that she took a break from cheer in middle school, Nelsch found it natural to jump back in. "I quit cheer cause I was just told that I was like a mean cheerleader by my sisters, so stopped when got into middle school. Once I got into high school, I decided that I wasn't gonna let somebody tell me that I'm not good enough for something so I did cheer," Nelsch said. Since then, Nelsch hasn't regretted her decision to focus solely on cheer, and has been the captain for two years.

"I DEDICATED MY LIFE TO THIS SPORT."
Nelsch said. story and photo by kaydence page

IT'S THE BEST STORY WE'LL EVER TELL.
YOU.
