ECHO with LAUGHTER

Threaded into the stressful times of high school, students find themselves making joyous memories with their friends. Whether it be from cheering for a best friend at a game, coordinating outfits for Spirit Week, or getting down at a school dance, students were able to make most of the moments that came their way. Jacob Mullane and Aanya Thapa '20 have strived to fill their life in high school with evenings of fun and laughter, just as they did at the Homecoming dance. But they did not want this dance to be the last of the great times they have. "I am looking forward to making memories with my friends and making the most out of high school," Aanya explained.
