

The moment to try is gone.
The moment to be is now.

Here we defy every one of the standards set for us.
Here we reset everything we were told.

Here we tell them: we are the ones who will be bold, be honest, be proud, be new, and be us. We sprint, climb, crawl, swim, fall down, get back up, and scream like we are on top of the world. We demand to be fearless because no height is too tall for us. No air too thin, no water too cold, no winter too harsh for our panther strength. We refuse to stand still, be quiet, back down; we break the silence in the woods. We will be everything they said we could never be.

We. Will. Be. Panthers.

Our expressive strength breaks down anything.
Under crushing boulders of Pikes Peak granite,
Against the odds of a mountain,
Over any low valley,
Through any cave,
Our expressive strength breaks down anything.

These 772 students
Stand together here.
Celebrate here.
Create here.
Be here.

Our school is hallways drenched with student art, industrial art classrooms stuffed with innovation, track runners covered with sweat, programs like band and knowledge bowl packed with passion. Our school is elevation; sitting at 8,465 feet above sea level, we are excelling on thin air and the beauty of Pikes Peak.

We are the minds, the strength, the love, the real, the fighters and the dreamers. We are the mountains - the tall, the bold, the strong, the students so powerful that we tower over our challenges. We are the campers, the hikers, the fishers, the locals.

You are the everything that we need.

It's finally time to Face It.
