

It's finally time to look back.
We did this.

Another grade
Another season
Another triumph
Another year.

And we've fought it all. Boldly.

Bracing the cold and facing our challenges together, we've made it again.

Look it in the eyes. Look what we made.

A thousand more assignments:

Papers due on Friday mornings,

Essay tests in block periods,

Groggy group projects,

Sunday study sessions,

Final tests on the final days.

A thousand more moments:

A homecoming roar,

A bonfire blazing with pride,

A parade,

A play,

A performance,

A game so stressful we're screaming from our seats,

A last day,

And another year has gone by.

Face It.
We did another year.

And we did it together. With panther pride through every moment, this year we were one.

One school. One idea. One dream. One power. One year.

Another fight, another win, another loss.

And

Another year of Woodland Park.
