

ONE TO REMEMBER The homecoming assembly on Sept. 14 was the first assembly for the 2019 seniors in their last year of high school. "My favorite part about the homecoming assembly is boy poms for sure. The boys work so hard with the pommies and they always manage to make it amazing, something I'll never forget!" Talya De Paz (12) said. The assembly involved games, performances by Poms and Cheer, and the homecoming nominations. PHOTO BY G. PREJEAN

SEE YOU This section is dedicated to the students' community. A huge part of the loving CT bcommunity sprouts from moments like the poms team's dedication to improving self love and mental stability. Senior poms captain, Danielle Krasauskas (12), organized a charity event called Every Pulse Has A Purpose to help with suicide prevention and awareness. It started when Coach, Mia Brown, wanted captions to do find a charity. "Mental Health is really close to my heart so I thought it would be a good idea to bring it to the school," Krasauskas said. "I hope it brings more awareness for students at our school to feel more comfortable getting help." PHOTO BY K. MILLER

“ My favorite part of the senior sunrise was the photos and hanging out with all my friends. Even though it's early, the amount of fun is so worth going. I would highly reccomend it. Madi Leeper (12) ”

“ I really loved getting to hang out with all my friends at the senior sunrise. It's a fun opportunity to see people at a time of day you normally wouldn't get to, and the donuts are always yummy! Jana Anderson (12) ”

SEE ME This section is dedicated to students, staff, and their individual stories. Changes are natural through out everyone's life, a big change for the students was accepting a new principal. Mrs. Jean Incitti came for the 2018-2019 school year, and a lot has changed. One change being that everyone feels more connected to and cared for by Mrs. Incitti. "I feel like she's done really [well]. She cares about the students, and it's obvious," Zyan Ladson (12) said. Mrs. Incitti can often be seen standing in the halls during passing periods, at after school activities and sports, and talking to students and faculty members. PHOTO BY K. MILLER

“ My favorite part about cheer is going into practice and seeing everyong work towards one common goal. I see the cheer girls more than I see my family, so they've just become a part of who I am.

Meghan Green (10)

“ It has made me become a better person and realized everyone has something good in them.
