Inspiration

Marching Musically.

Jocelyn Swetlic ('19) performs with the Marching Band during the Homecoming Assembly. "It's always a really cool experience each year to do it," said Swetlic. "It's cool to show the school what we do."

Spirit

Cheering them on.

Cross country members Amelie Bauer ('21) and Max Link ('20) cheer their fellow cross country teammates on from the sidelines. "I love the family aspect of it and it's just a really good team and we all work really good together," said Bauer." Photo by Cooper Beason

Connections

Making Connections. Math teacher, Mrs. Nicole Lepke, helps one of her students understand a math problem. "Seeing the light bulb go on for kids who especially have struggled in math, and suddenly they have this moment of 'I think I understand it and I can do it' which is really good," says Mrs. Lepke.

Fairy Tale Ending. Taking a risk in front of the entire school, Ivan Romero ('20) asks Kiernan Wilson ('19) to prom at the end of the Wish Week assembly. "Asking Kiernan to prom was life changing for me. I did this to make her last year the best. I also did it to inspire kids all around the world to spread love," said Romero. Of course, Wilson said yes! Photo by Tripp Ceysens.
