

IT'S SIMPLE.

40 years ago
our doors opened to Overland's first freshman class.

Since then,
it's been a second home
to immigrants,
to Colorado natives,
to Blazers.

Being a Blazer means
dodging the skateboarders
in front of the IST
on your way to Mr. Lefebvre's Calculus class, or running to catch the gate before Curtis closes it at 3:40.
It means being a part of something bigger than yourself.

We are a community
made up of people
from all over the world.
It's simple.

EYES SHUT TIGHT, teacher Mr. Carter Krueger sings "Brotherhood of Man" to the crowd. "It is pretty unique for a school to produce a staff musical," Krueger said. Krueger starred in the show and was also a health and math teacher. photo by miriana ortega rivera
