

In 1978, freshman Ted Newell stepped into the school. WHO COULD HAVE IMAGINED that 40 years later, he'd be planning his retirement after 24 years as a teacher at the O, or that seniors like Khalid Saeed would linger in the cafeteria throwing bars at a rap battle before heading to post grad to polish scholarship applications?

WHO COULD HAVE IMAGINED that Mr. Pete Kleinsasser, the Teacher of the Year, would sweat dripping down his face, as he ate increasingly hot wings, all while being interviewed by the senior editor of OTV?

WHO COULD HAVE IMAGINED that our principal Leon Lundie, despite it being his final year as a Blazer, would sponsor the clean-up club and agree to drive around the parking lot to film Carpool Karaoke for homecoming week?

It's hard to imagine, but IT'S SIMPLE.
