

IT'S SIMPLE.

We are 2406 students 200 of us are
non-native English speakers.
We are 117 AP Scholars
taught by 173 teachers.
We are 105 countries
speaking 58 languages.

Our strength
comes from our adversities.
Our hardships
bring us closer together.

THE DIFFERENCE IS

the SYRIAN refugee sitting next to the COLORADO native
in Ms. Razavi's ninth grade English class.
It's hearing senior Abdifatah Ali say "WALLAHI BRO"
and knowing he's really telling the truth.
It's Mr. Sewell encouraging us to maintain our grades with every visit to POSTGRAD.

Our conversation extends beyond spoken words.

IT'S SIMPLE.

THE DIFFERENCE IS US

STANDING IN FRONT OF THE FLAG, senior Joel Sarinana helps contribute to a dia de los muertos photoshoot. "We spend the day reminiscing about the memories we had with them and it's a good day to celebrate the great people we've lost," Sarinana said. Sarinana always tries to incorporate his culture in his style. photo by mariana ortega
