The FACS Field Trip encouraged students to learn more about the culinary traditions of different cultures. "I learned mostly that in Indian culture, they don't really eat with utensils; they use their hands," MacKendrick said. photo by s. sullivan

2. AT THE CLOSING CEREMONY OF J-DAY, Sophia Pallman, Madalyn Murphy, Scarlet Sloss, Benjamin Little, Adison Bartlett and Rianne Jeffers, 08, celebrate winning an All Colorado award for the 2018 yearbook at CSU Fort Collins. "It was very inspiring to be one of the only middle schools there winning an award and to hear all of us cheering was a very exciting moment," Bartlett said. photo by a. varvarinecz

4. AFTER THE 7TH GRADE HONOR ROLL ASSEMBLY, Callahan Davis, 07, celebrates his academic performance with his mother. "I enjoy Honor Roll because it acknowledges the hard work that was done thought the year," Davis said. photo by d. thompson

5. IN THE CU JOURNALISM VIRTUAL REALITY ROOM, Luke Sokolowski, 08, dances with glow sticks and confetti. Sokolowski took this opportunity to enjoy spending time in the company of friends. "We were looking for a good idea for a photo opportunity, but then things got out of hand and it turned into a party. Being able to hang off a cliff while still staying in the safety of the building was a rare experience," Sokolowski said. photo by r. west

6. LISTENING WITH HIS FELLOW YEARBOOK STAFFERS TO THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER, MARY BETH TINKER, Colin Winterbottom, 08, learns about the Supreme Court's Tinker decision, which guaranteed student journalism rights. "I think it's cool how she was just a kid and could still make a change in the world," Winterbottom said. photo by s. damiano

7. CHOWING DOWN, Andrew Chapman, 08, attends India's Kitchen Field Trip. "I enjoyed this field trip because we got to eat food from a different culture," Chapman said. photo by s. sullivan

members of The Prowl staff journeyed over an hour and a half for the field trip. Traveling in style on two chartered buses equipped with bathrooms, 70 staff members spent the day attending a variety of sessions ranging from photography to graphic design. "It was exciting to be able to hang around and be with friends," Eli Franks, 08, said.

The day began with Keynote Speaker, Mary Beth Tinker. Tinker gained fame as a middle school student who donned a black arm band in protest of the Vietnam War. Tinker's case was decided by the Supreme Court in 1969, which guaranteed student journalism press rights. "I like how much she expressed support for freedom of speech and the First Amendment," Danika Thompson, 08, said. The staff enjoyed an hour of lunch at the CSU campus food courts with a variety of different types of food. "I enjoyed being able to sit outside with my friends and eat my Triple Double Crunch Wrap from Taco Bell. I even got an extra six inch flatbread sandwich from Subway," Jackson Smith, 08, said.

On the long journey home, one of the buses broke down on I-25. The students had to make an emergency exit, boarding the other bus to return home to school after the school day was already over. "After Ms. Manculich told us we had to switch buses, we crammed together and the rest of the bus ride was chaotic," Reegan Parker, 08, said.

more than a MOMENT SEPTEMBER'S HAPPENINGS WHAT DO YOU REMEMBER MOST?

MADISON HOLBROOK, 07
"During Honor Roll, I remember the proud feeling while walking on stage and shaking Mr. Wolf's hand."

ALEXIS WERNECKE, 08
"When I was at India's Kitchen, I specifically remember Fred Fulkerson broke all of the plates."

ANDREW SALTHOUSE, 08
"I enjoyed playing the 'Star Spangled Banner' because I'm pretty patriotic and I really like things that are loud and patriotic."

SAMUEL ALPERN, 08
"At J-Day, I learned that there are a lot of different ways you can approach journalism and it's a pretty wide subject."
