Cast participates in last week of rehearsals

Throughout fall of 2018, the drama club performed the musical, Seussical Jr. Oct 26, 27, and 28. Seussical Jr. is a musical based off of Dr. Seuss' characters such as the Cat in a Hat, Horton from Horton Hears A Who, Gertrude McFuzz, Mayzie LaBird, the Sour Kangaroo, Jojo, and many more. The actors worked almost everyday for several weeks in order to put on the production. The cast and crew took one last week to make sure that they were ready to perform by running through the whole show and perfecting it.

1. SWEET AND SOUR:

Ella Heimer (6) sings her big musical number "Biggest Blame Fool" in rehearsal, Oct. 15. Heimer played the Sour Kangaroo, a minor lead in the fall musical. "I was basically the bully of the story and pretty much a sassy diva" Heimer said.

2. PLAYING THE PART OF A PARENT:

Kambree Cowan (8) lectures Emerson Yu (7), Oct. 15. Cowan played the mother of Yu's character Jojo. "I played Ms. Mayor. [Throughout the show] I developed this 'proper' mother-like character," Cowan said.

3. TAKING FLIGHT

Tvisha Hariharan (7) dances and narrates with her fellow bird girls in rehearsal, Oct. 15. The bird girls played an important part in the fall musical by narrating the story. "Since I was a bird girl, it was nice to have others playing the same role guiding and supporting me," Hariharan said.
