

SW DE MOS ARE DE I V ED R V SE OR SE E

Winner Winner Chicken Dinner - Spanish students competing in the Pan American competition show off their trophies after they won first place.

Felices Los Cinco - Five of our proud students smile as they support Alamosa High school in a speaking competition at World Language Day.

Just the Boys - Mr. Castillo looks through the schedule of competitions as the boys rehearse their speeches.

Eye of the Tiger - Students that competed in World Language Day were determined and kept their eye on the prize. Although Alamosa High School was the smallest school competing they were able to get second place.

Pan American and World Pan Americano Y Dia de Lenguajes Language Days

En la escuela Alamosa High School, somos DIFFERENTES y lo celebramos en los dias, Pan Americanos, y los Lenguas del Mundo. En esos dos eventos, los estudiantes demuestran sus TALENTOS en espanol. Los maestros de espanol, Senora Herrera, Senior Castillo, y Senora Ponce, toman mucho tiempo para preparar a sus estudiantes. En Pan Americano, ganamos PRIMER lugar, y el dia de Lenguas del Mundo GANAMOS segundo lugar. El espanol ALLUDA estudiantes entender una CULTURA BELLA lleno

Translation

Alamosa High School is DIVERSE. We are UNIQUE, and we celebrate diversity through Pan American Days, and World Language Days. At both events, students are able to show off their TALENT. Spanish teachers, Ms. Ponce, Mr. Castillo, and Mrs. Herrera took a lot of their time preparing their students to give a HIGH QUALITY performance. At Pan American Days, Alamosa High school took FIRST, and at World Language days, Alamosa took second. SPANISH enhances a students perspective of a COLORFUL, beautiful CULTURE.

