

DUBSTEP

[Lip Dub]

[Ilias Hosain '19]

"The lip dub invoked a sense of community showing that everyone in the student body has their own place at Rampart."

Scan me

[Olivia McCrery '19]

"The band decided to play the fight song to show are school spirit."

[Avery Wilson '22]

"It was cool to finally be able to be apart of an all school event."

[Nathan Barker '19]

"It was cool to walk through the cameras and with our peers by our sides."

[Jared Foster '19]

"It was fun to just spirit out blue and gold as a school."

[Ishan Gohil '21]

"The coolest part was being able to see the inside of the school because it showed how we are all unified as a culture."

[Ava Bertrand '19]

"My favorite part of the lip dub was getting everyone together because it's my senior year."

[Nevaeh Garcia '20]

"Throughout the video I ran around the school trying to get everyone hype and excited to make the video even more enthusiastic."

[Olivia Perea '20]

"I loved being able to get out of class, and getting the chance to hang with my teachers and friends."

