

MIX, DON'T MATCH

students explain the prime differences between what makes an outfit wacky or tacky

WACKY

"Getting up this morning, I was really hoping that a lot of people would come up to me and say, DANG YOU LOOK WACKY!"
-sophomore Naethur Widow

"What makes an outfit wacky is JORTS."
-junior Mohammed Abugassa

"It's CRAZY AND WEIRD, expressing the mood of craziness."
-senior Sarah Jackson

"It's a CREATIVE WAY OF EXPRESSING YOUR ARTISTIC IDEAS within the school code."
- senior Ginette Rancy

"It's UNNATURAL OR CRAZY, it's like you're being unmatched on purpose."
- freshman Vegas Dewine

"CLASHING PATTERNS AND COLORS make an outfit wacky."
- sophomore Rayla Malone

TACKY

"It's just trash, unorganized clothes, IT HAS MORE OF A NEGATIVE CONNOTATION TO IT, like they're unaware of how bad it looks."
- senior Beatrice Kwarteng

"It's like BEING OVERLY WEIRD, PUSHING THE BOUNDARIES and not in a good way."
- freshman Brooke Andrews

"Different patterns make an outfit wacky, and SHOULDER PADS MAKE IT TACKY."
- junior Sami Poche

"A tacky outfit is when your jeans are too skinny, your shirt is too long, YOU'RE NOT MATCHING, and you're wearing too many logos."
- junior Manharsh Mohan

3. TALKING LOUDLY, juniors Andrea Lomeli and Elisa Simpson laugh as they talk with their friend. "It was a wacky day," said Lomeli. Lomeli thrifted most of her outfit that day.
photos by mariana ortega-rivera

4. MIXING SHOES, at lunch with Hawaiian shirts, junior Alondra Medina and senior Eric Martinez show their mis-matched shoes. "I didn't plan my outfit, I kinda just threw on whatever," said Medina. Medina got her necklace from Denver PrideFest. photo by mariana ortega-rivera

5. JOKING AROUND, junior Cynthia Pinela reacts to her friend's joke at the lunchtable. "I was just having a good time looking at everybody and their wacky outfits," said Pinela. Pinela added that her outfit was inspired by her little sister. photo by mariana ortega-rivera

WE ALL SCREAM celebrating Ben and Jerry's 40th anniversary with an ice cream social

51% COOKIES & CREAM
"I like Cookies and Cream because it's different; I don't like plain vanilla and I don't like plain chocolate either and it has texture."
-sophomore Christelle Mahonda

23% COOKIE DOUGH
"When I was 8 or so, I had cookie dough from Dairy Queen and it was fire and it just slapped and it's been my favorite ever since."
- junior Gustavo Calderon

17% VANILLA
"Vanilla is my favorite because you are able to pair it with so many things."
-sophomore Jackie Zapanta

9% SHERBERT
"It has a variety of flavors that I like together, and I like diversity, it shows positivity."
- senior Lacina Sangare

*this survey was distributed to English classes across all grades

SCHOOL SPIRIT.

"It makes Homecoming Week that much more fun because if you don't dress up and do the days, it's kind of boring."

- sophomore Chloe Foucher

"My favorite part about showing school spirit during homecoming is to show my passion and excitement for the school."

- junior Beneyam Yifru

"It's one week and it's just different. It's fun to do all the things because every other week we wear our regular clothes."

- junior Miriam Penzo

"Showing spirit is coming together as a school and just being a family."

-senior Jadon Filipek

WHAT DIFFERENCE DOES IT MAKE?