

Basketball DUNKIN' MAGIC

MUSTANGS GET THEIR TEAMS TOGETHER FOR THE BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

ROOTING ON

Malcolm Kinzer (9) is on the sidelines getting mentally ready for the game to start. Kinzer plays quarter back on the freshmen football team. "I don't get to play a lot but I like rooting for my team," said Kinzer. (9) Kinzer didn't play all the time but when he did, he worked as hard as he could for the team. PHOTO BY ISABELLE MCQUIRE

BATTING ON

Ty Wilson (12) blocks his opposing team from scoring any points in the basketball tournament for wish week. "It was really fun to play against all my friends and support Jackson's wish," Wilson said. Ty's team didn't end up winning the tournament. PHOTO BY ISABELLE MCQUIRE

BAD BOYS 1 GIRL Jazzy Ellis (11) played in the bad boys/girl team during the wish week basketball tournament. "I had lots of fun competing in this," Ellis said. They won the tournament and got to play the teacher team. They let the teacher team win. PHOTO BY MICHAEL WILSON

WHAT'S GOING ON Collin Greening (12) and Caden Fries (11) compete in a game of blind musical chairs, since Greening can't see anything he trips over Fries trying to find the chair. "I had no idea what was going on, I could hear everyone cheering loudly then stop and do it again. I was so confused the entire time," Greening said. Fries was the winner of blindfold musical chairs at the Wish Week assembly. PHOTO BY ISABELLE MCQUIRE

Dreams do Come True

PONDEROSA GRANTS JACKSON'S WISH BY PARTICIPATING IN EVENTS TO MAKE AS MUCH MONEY TO GET JACKSON TO HAWAII

2. HOT DIGGITY DOG Morgan Palermo (10) was part of the Hot Dogers team. "I have competed with my soccer team the last 2 years. It really fun to be able to do this with my team!" Palermo said. In the end they ended up winning and can't wait for next years competition. PHOTO BY MICHAEL WILSON

3. WE'RE THE CHAMPIONS Joey Treccia(10), Dominic Lopez(10), Grant Biggins(10), Skyler Ahern(10), Cael Porter(10), and Grant Mikulka pose for a photo after winning the Wish Week Dodgeball tournament. "Last year our team got second place, so we really wanted to win and we were hyped when we won," Porter said. Prestige World Wide won undefeated 6-0 PHOTO BY MICHAEL WILSON

4. RELAXING VIBES The Hula Dancers posed for a photo with Jackson after teaching the Ponderosa students a hula dance for Jackson. "The dance they taught us was really fun, and Jackson looked so excited while we hula danced," Riley Bruder (11) said. The dancers taught us a dance, and performed two more for us. PHOTO BY MICHAEL WILSON

5. SKIPPIN 'N HOPIN Mikee Barker,12, prepares to chuck the ball at the other team to try to win the game for his team and take the dodgeball win. "I honestly wanted to play dodgeball and help out for Jackson wish, even though we didn't win it was really fun," Barker said. PHOTO BY MICHAEL WILSON

6. HAWAII HERE WE COME Caylynn Abbott, 12, cheers as it is announced how much money Ponderosa raised for Jackson. "We raised more than we did last year, and all the seniors were so excited to have raised more money than in any of our four years," Abbott said. Jackson's family began to tear up when it was announced how much we raised, and it was a touching moment for everyone. PHOTO BY ISABELLE MCQUIRE

CORNHOLE GAME OF FUN

NOT JUST A LAWN GAME ANYMORE

CORNHOLE FACE

Mrs. Austin is trying to sway the bean bag onto the board even though she missed. When shown the photo Mrs. Austin said, "Oh that's beautiful I hope that doesn't go in the year-book," Mrs. Austin said. Happily she had her baby girl a couple weeks later. PHOTO BY RAELEYN DAVISON

WINNERS

Eli Rojas (11) goes in for the shot and makes it on the board giving their team a point. "It was light work, we knew we were going to win walking in the door," Rojas said. His team ended up winning against the teachers. PHOTO BY ISABELLE MCQUIRE

3 POINTER

Jordan Fillingim (11) tosses the bag lightly and lands it on the edge of the board. "We got out first round but me and Spencer were doing pretty good during the fifteen minutes of practice and then absolutely go destroyed," Fillingim said. Fillingim's "Dream Team" got last place. PHOTO BY RAELEYN DAVISON

STUDENTS VS. TEACHERS

Jay Fuentes (11) waits his turn as his partner throws the bean bag. "My team did all of the events, we were hoping to win one and support Jackson," Fuentes said. Fuentes participated in and attended all of the Wish Weeks activities to raise as much money for Jackson as he could. PHOTO BY RAELEYN DAVISON

CORNHOLE HUNNIES

Spencer Beer (11) gets ready to start the second cornhole game. "In this photo I was feeling good about my team, knowing we did this for good cause. Even if we didn't win it was still an amazing feeling to help Jackson get the wish he wanted," Beer said. PHOTO BY RAELEYN DAVISON

WINNERS

Mrs. Ahrens throws a bean bag into the cornhole on the other side. "We didn't do great, but it was fun to get out and support Jackson's wish" Ahrens said. Ahrens' team almost made it to the end of the tournament but lost before the championship. PHOTO BY RAELEYN DAVISON