Sports Stud

You love anything and everything sports. Football games are your hangout place. You consider the school gym your second home. If you don't play in the games, you can be found in the stands. Read about the new soccer coach and cross country on pages 15-16.

Brick Wall Breaker

You enjoy getting out of your comfort zone and trying new things. Your free time is spent out of the house, doing anything that doesn't involve school. Read about your teachers' adventures beyond the school walls on pages 12-14.
