

A team of ten student broadcasters produced this broadcast without adult assistance. Wyatt Liles and Ethan Hendricks created the graphics and the splash, while the rest of the team wrote, recorded, edited, and produced all of the segments. Jordan Jensen, Carson Benesh, and Wyatt were responsible for all anchor segments, including the green screen background. Kathrin Houston and Celia McNulty were responsible for the Day of the Dead segment. Brandon Nimmons, Max Fredericksmeier, and Jack Ewig developed the interview with the school Athletic Trainer in the style of "Between Two Ferns" with Zach Galifianakis. Celia McNulty and Ayden Harris, Ben McCorrison, and Alex Neumann worked on the segment featuring the school coffee shop that's run by our special needs department. Connor Nimmons developed the quick joke with our beloved security guard Jim. Finally, we included a quick segment of our Student Council presidents to promote school events.
