1...HYPED

During the parade, Hector Magana (12), Scott Grable (11), Juan Maravilla (11), Sal Rojas (11), and Gage Butler (11) wave to the crowd from the football float. Maravilla said, "I was really excited to play with all my brothers and just have a good time."

2...ONE LAST RIDE

Seniors Savannah Noonan and Armando Munoz wave to fellow friends and family during their last Homecoming Parade. Noonan said, "The most memorable part [of homecoming week] was the parade and Powderpuff because being a senior, that was my last time doing everything."

FROM BOW TO TOE...

Members of the Spirit Team Natalia Rincon (11), Charlotte Reynolds (10) Ashlyn Crowder (10) and Illyana Lenderink (12) share lots of laughter together while throwing candy to kids during the Homecoming parade. Crowder said, "We just jammed out to music the entire time. We're like a family and we just act really dumb and stupid in every way." The Spirit Team also performed at the Homecoming Pep Rally. Lenderink said, "We [perform] for the school and not just for ourselves, but to make the school happy."

Dress Up Days...

- 1... SKSKSK Sarah-Cate Ogden (11), Annalise Holte (11), Madysn Brown (9), Shelby Shuman (9), Miranda Madrid (9), Gianna Gardella (9), Caitlynn Sauvageau (10), and Cherish Sauvageau (10), sport their outfits on Vsco and Ebay day. Madrid said, "My favorite part of dress up days was Egirl because I fully dressed up and my friends considered me as one of the best Egirls."
- 2... REPRESENTING RAINBOW Kristy Ford (10), Miranda Madrid (9), Brenna Lloyd-Green (11), and Zeekial Burgess (12) sported pink, purple, blue, and yellow to represent their graduating class. Lloyd-Green said, "I thought it was nice to be able to show and be proud of the grade that I am in and the graduating class that I am a part of."
- 3... HANGIN' LOOSE IN EATON Mariah Noonan, Liam Wray, and Bayley Jacobson ride on the beach themed sophomore float during the parade. Wray said, "I'd say the float was the best part of Homecoming because I got to see everyone [including] people I haven't see in a while."

STEP INTO THE GAME

PUT US IN COACH... Garret Gallegos (11), Evan Gesick (11), and Garrett Copeland (11) sit on the bench waiting for the next chance to play. Gesick said, "Powerstuff was a lot of fun, maybe a little bit rigged, but seniors had to win. So you know, whatever, it was cool."

THE COME BACK... Senior Javi Hernandez serves the ball to help the seniors regain the lead during the Powerstuff game. Hernandez's favorite memory was, "When we were losing but then we started catching up."

STIFF ARMING... Junior Jenni Jarnagin speeds past oncoming defenders during the Powderpuff game. Jarnagin said, "I kept remembering to try and score a touch down; to try to do something. It doesn't matter who does it, just try to get something done."

POWDER PUFF AND POWER STUFF

MMXXI VS. MMXX...

Junior and Senior teams competed in Powderpuff and Powerstuff during Homecoming week. Seniors took the WIN for both games. Junior Marco Rodriguez said, "Being out there was really fun; being with friends and hearing people cheering for you was pretty good too." Senior Gabriela Morales Varela said, "This year was more about making memories, doing everything together, and making sure everyone is involved in being a family."

What was the most memorable moment during the Powderpuff game?

"The excitement from the guys when we started making good plays and all of us coming together as one. No matter what happened, we won."

...HALEY BURGESS (12)

CHEERS FOR PEERS...

Senior cheerleaders Walker Scott, Dalton Logan, and Bryce Leafgren hoist Nic Inda into the air to show their spirit during the Powderpuff game. Inda, the stunt man, said "We came inside to the gym to get some practice in for the volleyball game. We found the cheerleading outfits in the storage room, so we put them on and ran out there."
