explore new heights

"I think I would want to climb a 14er because I feel like it would be a new experience and it would be fun. Going with my friends and family is probably who I would go with," Christopher Schlesinger '22 said.

a challenging climb

"I would love to climb a 14er because I feel like it would be very challenging and a cool experience. I would go with one of my friends because she would make it a lot more fun than it would be. I sometimes go hiking with my parents as well," Brooke Lange '22 said.

OPINIONS ON THE PROS AND CONS OF CLIMBING A 14ER IN COLORADO

vibrant views

"Climbing a 14er would be fun because it would be really pretty if it was a sunrise hike and you were able to see the top of the world. I feel like my dad and I would go because he's been trying to climb one too," Nicole Shupe '22 said.

fourteen thousand in the future

"I would hike a 14er because I feel like it would challenge my body. I plan on hiking a 14er in the future and I would want to go with my grandma because she is extremely athletic," Zane Johnson '22 said.
