Eaton Warriors

The EHS football team has their own secret tradition, warrior speeches. Spencer Renfro (12) said, "Warrior speeches are where players get recognition from the coaches of how hard they have been working that week." In recognition of their hard work and leadership, players are given tassels with a feather to go along with it. Coach Zac Lemon said, "The tassels were my wife's idea and she wanted to make the tassels so that it's like an actual warriors right of passage before the warriors go into war. [Warriors] would be given the tassels where they could hang in their hair or on their horse to represent what they have earned."

1...DYNAMIC DUO Javi Hernandez (12) runs the ball while Derek Renfro (12) blocks their opponent. Hernandez said, "You got to be a leader and lead the younger guys by setting an example and to always play with passion."

2...BEAST MODE In defender stance, Garrett Bean (12) readies to tackle the D' Evelyn wide receiver. Bean said, "Being a good Eaton football player takes a lot of sacrifice and commitment and to be willing to coach others and lead others. Always be yourself."

DEDICATION + MOTIVATION = SUCCESS...
Spencer Renfro (12) knocks down a Platte Valley player on 2nd down.

RISE AS ONE... Sal Rojas (11) catches the ball on kickoff and runs 99 yards to score a touchdown. Rojas said, "When I ran that touchdown, it was really cool. I couldn't have done it without my teammates because they were blocking for me and made a big hole, and I just ran through it."

NO PAIN, NO GAIN... Ethan Florez (10) gains a few yards against Platte Valley High School. Florez said, "When I am on the field, I am nervous to make a mistake, but I know that the guys support me, which makes me feel better."

"It's amazing how quick it happens from their freshman year and seeing how they have developed today. It's just the personal relationships I will miss the most about the senior boys."
