

Remember Where You Were

Students share their favorite states

Snow Adorable
Morgan Strickland (12) and her siblings loved to play in the snow when they were little. "This was our house in Illinois and probably one of my favorite memories. I really liked the snow and my elementary school there," Strickland said. Strickland moved seven times throughout her life.
Photo courtesy of M. Strickland

I Love New York
Mason Hollis (11) stood in Times Square at age six. "I loved being around so many people, it was so diverse. I loved the city and the big buildings," Hollis said. Hollis' favorite part was seeing the Statue of Liberty.
Photo courtesy of M. Hollis

The Greatest Of Lakes
Jackson Kuhl (10) stands in front of the Great Salt Lake. "Utah was very beautiful, I made some really good lifelong friends living there. It's such a peaceful place," Kuhl said. Kuhl lived in Utah for eight years and he loved to hunt, fish, and ride four wheelers.
Photo courtesy of J. Kuhl

Peace And Calm
Autumn Ivester (11) favorite place to visit is Pennsylvania. "My favorite thing to do is kayak down the river and going cliff jumping," Ivester said. Ivester's family lived in Pennsylvania so they visited often.
Photo courtesy of A. Ivester

Oceanside, CA
Adreanna Lance (12) stands on the Oceanside Pier. "I loved and will always love California because that's where I grew up and made all of my friends. It's also where I found my love for softball," Lance said. Every Thursday after school, Lance and her friends would hang out on the pier. Lance was born in California and lived there for fifteen years.
Photo courtesy of A. Lance

Arches For All
Madison Lockwood (11) went to St. Louis, Missouri for a volleyball tournament. "My favorite thing we did was getting to go to the top of the arch and seeing the city," Lockwood said. Traveling for sports allowed students to visit different places they may not have traditionally gone.
Photo courtesy of M. Lockwood

Paradise Forever
Kayla Hanson (11) and her family traveled to Oahu, Hawaii over fall break this year. "My favorite thing was getting to watch the sunsets every night and getting to see something so beautiful," Hanson said. Traveling was a perfect way for students to spend time with family making memories.
Photo courtesy of K. Hanson

Everything Is Bigger In Texas
Brenden Wolff (10), Christopher Smallwood (12), and another teammate traveled on Feb. 18 for a hockey tournament in Arlington, Texas. "Texas brings back memories for us because of how hard we worked as a team to make it into the semifinals despite all the injuries," Wolff said. The team was like a family to Smallwood and Wolff.
Photo courtesy of B. Wolff

The Magic Of Florida
Ameena Wynn (9) snaps a shot in The Wizarding World of Harry Potter. "My favorite part of the trip was spending time with family. Florida is so diverse and there are so many things to do," Wynn said. Wynn went to the Universal Orlando Resort on her trip to Florida with her best friends and family.
Photo courtesy of A. Wynn

