

Strutting Through The Gym As the group that makes Wish Week possible, many Leadership members decided to form a team, including Mikayla Gallant (11). "We didn't make it very far into the tournament, but we all laughed so hard as we decided to each become a Kardashian for the night," Gallant said. Gallant dressed up as Khloe Kardashian for the event that kicked off Wish Week.
Photo by H. Krafels

Winding Up On The Court Although her team didn't make it very far into the competition, Chloe Jackson (11) still had a blast dodging and throwing with her team. "I decided to be on a team this year so that I could help Julian while having fun with my friends," Jackson said. Jackson's team was named Julian's Warriors to show their commitment to fight for the cause. Photo by H. Krafels

Stay Dodgin'

Wish Week dodgeball

The excitement grew as everybody in the gymnasium held their breath while Principal Incitti began to reveal the final amount of money raised for Julian. One of the most heartwarming and touching times of the year was being able to make wishes come true. Wish Week never failed to bring great memories every year. "Wish Week is about gathering the whole community to help someone with a critical illness. It goes beyond the barriers of race, politics, and other barriers to unify a community to make good," Corey Benton (10) said. Helping make a difference while having fun at the same time was always a big part of the school's values. Every day there was a certain theme to dress up to that added more fun to the week. "It is important for everyone to dress up during Wish Week because it shows that we can come together as a community in trying to grant Julian's wish," Anastasia Dinescu (12) said. A favorite event was dodgeball that kicked off the week on Feb. 10. Students got the chance to not only play each other but to also play teachers and staff. "The best part about participating in dodgeball was that I could be a part of something to help Julian and the cause. It was also a fun way to get involved with my friends," Chloe Jackson (11) said. As lots of people participated in the events, it allowed them to see that everyone cared about a cause greater than their own. This Wish Week was successful due to the amount that our students participated and helped on Julian's journey.

Dodge, Duck, Dip, Dive, Dodge In shock, Anthony Hicks II (12) reacts to an audience member getting hit in the face with a dodgeball on Feb. 10. "It was so fun to be able to share a fun moment with my brothers and give back to a cause greater than my own," Hicks said. For his last year, Hicks joined his closest friends on a team named We Do Be Dodging Doe.
Photo by H. Krafels

Cycling 4 Cash

Thursday's classes at Cycle Bar

Ride To The Finish Emma Reichert (11) took the cycle class on top of all of her Poms practices during Wish Week. "As a dancer, I am used to a lot of conditioning, but I was still really tired afterward," Reichert said. Reichert had a busy week with her dance, Student Leadership work, and all the events. Photo by H. Krafels

Set For The Rides For her first time ever doing a cycle class, Alyssa Kimes (11) decides to try it out for Wish Week. "I went to all of the classes and I honestly didn't think they would be that hard," Kimes said. Although Kimes was sore, she said she would go to more classes in the future. Photo by H. Krafels

Miles For Money Kendra Bacon (11) and Rebecca Vincent (9) decide to join the cause and cycle to raise money for Julian. "It was so fun to take the class with everyone from school, and it was funny to see what everyone was doing during it," Bacon said. Each class at Cycle Bar was discounted at ten dollars for the whole school. Photo by H. Krafels

Endurance In The Gym As an athlete, Joshua Belzer (10) thought he aced the class. "I feel like I did really good. As a soccer player, I have a lot of cardiovascular endurance," Belzer said. Although Belzer did well, he decided to stick to the soccer fields. Photo by H. Krafels

20% Dodgeball
23% Assembly
11% Movie Night

Julian's Faves

18% Singing Valentines
13% Lunch Games
11% Blood Drive

Wish Week activities

Movie Night In The Auditorium On the night of Feb. 11, Julian's favorite movie, Cars, played for all those who attended the event, and Mia Armendariz (12) was happy to go. "It was fun to just snuggle up with my friends and enjoy the movie," Armendariz said. Armendariz and her friends brought blankets and snacks to enjoy the film. Photo by O. Eyre

9 COLOR Run Prepare for Submission for Color ID information.

Names of tagged colors should appear in this box.

Spec. Instr. TCID:PP

Job No. 043840 Page No. 82 (even pages)

School Name: Cherokee Trail Highschool

Run Prepare for Submission when this spread is complete to submit to the plant. Using PFS will help ensure your pages print without delays.

Job No. 043840 Page No. 83 (odd pages)

School Name: Cherokee Trail Highschool

Run Prepare for Submission when this spread is complete to submit to the plant. Using PFS will help ensure your pages print without delays.

Spec. Instr. TCID:PP

COLOR Run Prepare for Submission for Color ID information.

Names of tagged colors should appear in this box.