

28

Middle School

Jadon Hunt, 8th

Ava Jackson, 8th

Landon Fowler, 8th

Customer is allowed to have objects outside of the margin.

TRIM LINE

TRIM LINE

Up & Away Students compete in a game during PE class. Mr. Wagner has always made the class enjoyable for all students, no matter their grade level.

Rico Moreno , 7th

Ms. Denham

Jessica Stewart, 8th

Isabel Hoover, 6th

Katelin Thomson, 6th

Middle school is the journey from childhood to adolescence! Kids grow and learn new responsibilities. Relationships become much more than what someone's favorite color is. And for the first time, the world shifts from a magical land where anything is possible to a place where you must work hard to achieve your dreams. Alex Bush, a seventh-grader says, "School is a lot harder" and one of his favorite activities this year was measuring feet in math.

Living BOLD