Running a trick play to confuse Mesa.

by J.Campbell, C.Kushensky, M.O'Kelley

Quarterback lifts his foot to start the play. Wide receiver sprints toward the hand off. Players running at him. The wide receiver steps back to throw the ball. The fear of interception looming. Pass complete. TOUCHDOWN!

Sierra flag football players agree that this season was one of their best. "My season was great, and if I could I would play again. I would encourage anyone coming into Sierra to try to play," Julian Klatt said.

"I played on B Team and it was very enjoyable. We won every game, and that is why I liked it so much. It was also a great time to learn about my teammates and my friends," Brett Haile said.
