

TRIM LINE

IN THE FAMILY... It's game day against Strasburg and Emily Maske (9) serves to score a point for the Reds. Maske explained how she started playing volleyball. "My mom put me in volleyball awhile ago because she played volleyball in college," said Maske.

BLOCK OUT... Madison Chavez (9) blocks a tip by Liberty Commons and scores a point. Chavez explained how high school volleyball is different from middle school volleyball. "We do everything as one. We sweat together and we work hard together; it's like a family," said Chavez.

GAME ON

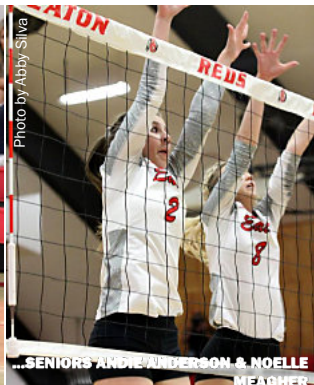

...GRACIE TOMLINSON (9)

...ANDIE ANDERSON (12)

...KYNNA GENTRY (11)

...SENIORS ANDIE ANDERSON & NOELLE MEAGHER

"You actually have to work for things, and nothing is just given to you. If you think it's gonna be given to you than you're wrong. There is so much work that goes into it behind the scenes that barely anybody sees, but I enjoy that part." ...AINSIE ROSS (9)

1...

2...

3...

1...STEP TO SCORE Kylie Schumacher (9) spikes the ball to score a point during a home game against Strasburg High School.
2... HUDDLE The JV team huddles up before the game against long-time rival Platte Valley High School.
3...STUFF BLOCK Kylie Schumacher (9) and Ainslie Ross (9) block a ball from Liberty Commons.

...KYNNA GENTRY (11), DELANEY OCHSNER (11) & MEGAN ST JEAN (10)

TO THE NINES... Nine-year head coach Gwen Forster leads another Reds team to the state volleyball tournament for the ninth consecutive year. The varsity team is dedicated to winning every game, but more importantly they are dedicated to working as a team. Team member Megan St Jean (10) said, "I like the community we have. It's like a family because everybody builds trust, and we become a really close group of girls who support and love each other."

"I love our student section because they're always so supportive and they always hype up our games."
 ...NOELLE MEAGHER (12)

GET HYPED... It's Beach Day at the game against Faith Christian and the crowd is excited. The game was close at times, and the student section was hungry for the win. Senior Bryce Leafgren said, "I liked the beach theme, that was a lot of fun just because it allowed us to have a lot of props."

TRIM LINE

TRIM LINE

Customer is allowed to have objects outside of the margin.

TRIM LINE