

The residents of the beast's cursed castle brought everything from tea kettles to candlesticks to life. Mrs. Potts was played by Hailie Perry (top left). She wowed the crowd during "Tale as Old as Time." Edynn Lucero played the social and flamboyant candlestick, Lumiere. With experience in both dance and voice lessons, she did justice to "Be Our Guest" and "Human Again." Her partner in crime, of course, was Parker Weathers as Cogsworth. His annoyance and uptight personality played against Lumiere's for some of the funniest scenes in the show. As real life friends, their on-stage dynamic was fantastic. The entire cast was full of life and joy during all three of their shows, and earned every standing ovation.

Lights! Camera! Action!

No Curse Here - Morgan Hollingsworth played a beautiful Belle. The audience immediately fell in love with her voice.
