

1. jump around
During the game against Mountain Vista, Akash Devamadehavam '20 jumps up with his teammates Oct. 31. During senior night, the team honored their seniors. "It almost didn't feel real to me that the sport that I had played for most of my life that today would be the last game I played," Devamadehavam said. "I also reflected on the hard work me and my teammates put in for the last four years."
Photo: M. Brown

2. four years and marching
Julia Lewis '20 plays the flute at a varsity football game Oct. 31. Lewis has been on band for the past four years. "My favorite part of this marching band season has been playing at the football games, it's fun to play in such an energetic setting," Lewis said.
Photo: K. Rex

3. bittersweet goodbye
Cam Spires '22 traps the ball in a game against Legend Oct. 24. The varsity boys team took a 2-1 win on Senior Night, where the seniors on the team were celebrated. "Senior night is a rough night because this year we had 13 seniors, so half of our team was congratulated for leaving the school," Spires said. "Also we had a game winner so that made it more exciting."
Photo: M. Brown

4. for the boys
After the Senior Night football game Oct. 31, Nick Niemann '20 poses with his senior teammates. The varsity team lost against Mountain Vista 26-17. "It never really hit me until the final game that I will never play football again," Niemann said. "But now that's over I'm happy that I experienced it."
Photo: M. Brown

5. group photo
A group of soccer players in blue jerseys poses for a team photo on the field.

"GOING ON THE FIELD KNOWING THAT YOU'VE SPENT THE LAST 4 YEARS PLAYING WITH THESE GUYS MADE IT [THE SENIOR GAME] EVEN BETTER."
JAMES MCHENRY '20.

"MAKING MUSIC WITH MY BEST FRIENDS HAS BEEN SOME OF THE GREATEST EXPERIENCES OF MY LIFE, I'VE LEARNED A LOT ABOUT MYSELF ESPECIALLY IN THE REALM OF SELF EXPRESSION," NICK JANNEY '20 SAID.

the drummer boys
Seniors, Jack Stohs and Nick Janney smile during a Marching Band performance Oct. 31. It was the senior night football game, where Marching Band performed during halftime. "I'm a percussionist so I play drums and other instruments," Stohs said. "I chose to play them because they are fun."
Photo: K. Rex

WE WILL march ON

OCTOBER SPORTS WRAP UP THEIR SEASONS WITH SENIOR NIGHTS AND STATE

WE made IT

GIRLS SOFTBALL TAKES ON RALSTON VALLEY AT STATE

Macy Rooney '20 holds her glove during softball state Oct. 25. The Jags lost to Ralston Valley 6-3. "We worked well together as a team and having a chance at winning state made us work harder as a team," Rooney said.
Photo: L. Peterson

"IT'S EXCITING AND EMOTIONAL PLAYING THE STATE GAME BECAUSE WE KNOW IT'S ONE OF OUR LAST GAMES WITH ROCK CANYON." ERIN KEEN '20.

senior NIGHT VARSITY VOLLEYBALL AND THEIR FAMILIES CELEBRATE SENIOR NIGHT

on to the next chapter
During the game against Castle View, Grace Acker '20 walks with her parents on Senior Night Oct. 24. Seniors were honored and got to walk across the floor with their parents. "It was sad to know that my last high school volleyball season was ending but it made me excited for what was coming next," Acker said.
Photo: B. Acker

the pom dot com
Cate Duncan '20 smiles with her mom during Senior Night Oct. 24. Duncan is the middle blocker for the varsity team. "I think what I'll miss most is the connections you grow throughout the season with your teammates and the commitment you have to put into practices as well as games," Duncan said.
Photo: B. Acker

one last hoorah
Libby Goodman '20 walks with her parents on Senior Night during the game against Castle View Oct. 24. The seniors got to walk across the floor with their parents to be honored as a senior. "It was a big deal because it's the last time you're gonna play for your school and all of your friends are all on the team so it's hard to know that that's your last game," Goodman said.
Photo: B. Acker