

6

K-12 Spirit Days

Hannah McGrath,
Faculty

Evelynn Horve, 1st

Noah Stanton, 3rd

That's the Spirit!

Anatomy of an Ugly Sweater

Shane Wagner leaps in excitement after winning our ugly sweater competition this fall. What makes this ugly sweater get-up truly great comes in three parts.

Our first point are the aviator glasses Wagner dug up to really set the mood. The eyes are windows to the soul and this aviators say that this soul can't use mirrors.

Secondly, the sweater its self isn't even a complete sweater, it's simply a vest that truly ups the anti in terms of things that make the fasion industry uncomfortable. Wagner finishes this look off with loafer like shoes that with each step is another step away from what is socially accepted footwear, third only to Crocs and socks in sandals.

Photo Credits Evan Bergslien

It's all in the costume

1. Dee Gardner, 11th, Hannah Martin, 11th, and Charles Gallagher, 11th, show off their hats in a group photo on Crazy Hat Day. Crazy Hat Day is a chance for students to express themselves with style.

2. Natalie Stelwagon, 4th, shows off her Dr. Pepper hair style on crazy hair day. The unique choice caught people's eyes.

3. The PGA high school staff gather for a photo wearing their lumberjack outfits. Even the staff has fun during spirit week!

4. Dre Larsen, 10th, and James Messick, 10th, strike a pose in their western themed costumes. They chose to wear matching cowboy costumes.

Customer is allowed to have objects outside of the margin.

TRIM LINE

TRIM LINE