

POWDERPUFF

Littleton girls came together at DeKoevend park during spirit week to play the annual powderpuff football game. These girls rallied together and were able to create strong teams for each class. Everyone was in high spirits as they played a heated game. The score was close a few times, but the juniors ended up beating the sophomores. The juniors went on to play against the team of seniors. The junior girls put up a strong fight, but the seniors ultimately were just too quick and won the game! The seniors celebrated by singing the senior cheer and making the most of their last ever powderpuff game. The Littleton Lions all had an amazing time, as it wasn't about winning or losing, but being together in the moment. Junior Elizabeth Krankota said, "It was nice to get to interact with everyone and play football while still being safe." These girls took advantage of this time to get together and participate in one of the most beloved traditions during spirit week.

1. GO LONG! Senior Elise Boorum prepares to throw the ball to a teammate across the field. "Watch out Broncos! The senior girls are coming for your jobs!" jokingly exclaimed Boorum. photo by julia frank

2. TACKLE. Sophia Lisle (10) smiles after getting tackled down during a play. Lisle said, "Powderpuff was so much fun! I got to be quarterback which was pretty cool." photo by julia frank

3. GOT GAME? Scarlett Montoya (10) dodges an opponent trying to steal the ball. "It was really fun to be a part of powderpuff especially since there is not a ton of events going on," stated Montoya. photo by julia frank

4. ARE YOU READY? Senior Ashton Haddock makes sure the rest of the powderpuff players are prepared for her to throw the football. Haddock explained, "I had a lot of fun and we had a pretty good turnout provided the circumstances and it was nice to see people outside of school." photo by julia frank

5. GAME FACE. Avery Bergschneider (12) tries to pull the flag off of the other team's belt. "I had a blast playing powderpuff. The senior team worked well together and ended up winning first place!" noted Bergschneider. photo by julia frank

student council hands out popsicles to students during spirit week

To help put a smile on peoples faces, some of student councils members handed out popsicles to students during lunch. "The world is in such a funk right now, and it was refreshing to have a few moments of interaction with people who I do not normally talk to," states Junior Harvey Rainwater. It was a fun experience for all, and memories were made.
