

Senior Sunrise

LOOKING BACK

Although the pandemic dampened the moods of many, some found ways to flip that negativity into positivity. 1. Jesse Charter, 12, along with many others went to Senior Sunrise on August 19th to keep the tradition alive. "I felt like with everything going on in this out of the ordinary school year, that Senior Sunrise would be a really great opportunity to connect with those who we wouldn't be able to see a lot anymore. All the standards that have come along with COVID-19 have led to an amazing, event filled year with my first memory of the year. I'm looking forward to being the class that kept this tradition alive and maybe have made some new ones too."

2. Zachary Stallings, 12, poses for a picture with Michael Brown, 12, Shelby Gabrielson, 12, Mia Muse, 12, Addie Becker, 12, Sabrina Miller, 12, Ashlyn Mee, 12, and Rori Rodriguez, 12.
 3. Jesse Charter, 12, with Makayla Kahn, 12, and Niah Hoover, 12, take a picture as the sun rises.

ADVICE FOR FRESHMEN

"Make the most of the experience by getting involved and trying new things. Four years is over before you know it."

Makenna Weiner, 12

"Don't try and be anyone's idea of perfect. Be your own."

Rebecca Burgess, 12
