Varsity softball member Sydney Boulaphinh '24 swings at the ball during an away game against Columbine High School, Sept. 22. This was Boulaphinh's third game in her high school softball career as the only freshman on the Varsity team. "I was pretty confident that I would make Varsity, but not cocky because I knew I played for a high level club team," Boulaphinh said. With only three years of experience playing softball, Boulaphinh finished the season with a .552 batting average and five home runs. During a game, Boulaphinh's go-to cheer is "you got this right here" and "be ready". Boulaphinh's inspiration for playing first came from her older brother. "My brother played baseball and ever since I was little, I've loved watching him play baseball," Boulaphinh said. "I wanted to play baseball but as I got older it was kind of weird playing with a bunch of boys. So my mom kinda forced me to play softball." After high school, Boulaphinh hopes to play in college at Stanford University, Oregon State University or UCLA. 2020's softball season was very different from years past but that didn't stop Boulaphinh from making new memories with her new team. "My favorite place for softball I've traveled to was Oklahoma because the weather was good and we played in the hotel a lot and went swimming," Boulaphinh said.

like seeing new things and trying new restaurants. My favorite place to travel is Las Vegas because there are lots of things to do and different foods," Boulaphinh said. Her competitive softball team travels, which allows her to combine her two favorite interests.
