EYE ON THE BALL. Stealing a rebound from Silver Creek's fingertips, Caleb Johnson (11) prepares to move the ball down the court. With some previous Varsity experience, Johnson knew what to do once he got the ball. "I was just focused on getting the ball back down court and am looking for an opportunity to score. Mostly I was just glad I got the ball back for my team. We all play super well as a team, and that's what makes us as good as we are," Johnson said.

AT HOME. Sitting at her desk Greer Ransweiler (9), opens up Schoology ready for her class. Every student has a different approach to online school. "The most challenging thing about online school for me was having the motivation to actually get up and do school and not fall asleep during classes or like get the work done when I have the time during classes instead of later," Ransweiler said.

WE WAITED.

FOR OCTOBER 2ND.
FOR THE REAL CLAP IN.
FOR A REASON TO PUT ON SHOES.

BACK TO SCHOOL,
SORT OF AT LEAST HALF OF US AT A TIME.
EXCITED TO SEE OTHER PEOPLE.

LEAD THE WAY. Link leader Isabella Zebolsky (12) leads her group past the front office. Due to COVID, freshman had been attending school for almost two months by the time they finally entered the building. "Being able to have that opportunity to help the freshman get into the routine of high school, even socially distanced, was something I really wanted to be a part of," Zebolsky said.

W BABY. Eddie Kurjak (12) embraces Coach Jeff Kloster after the first round playoff victory over Falcon High School. Over the past four years the team had a record of 13-3 in the playoffs including a state championship, state runner up, and a trip to the final four. "Coach Kloster is a great guy, when you are around him that long how can you not be close with him," Kurjak said.
