

WE WENT HERE & THERE

With air travel restricted, road trips through Colorado and beyond became the summer vacay staple.

"We got to see lots of beautiful waterfalls, go on bike rides and hike to a tree swing that overlooked the entire town. I think it was a good break from all of the crazy stuff that was happening because we got to relax and enjoy nature."

-Quinn Barry (8)

"Going to New Mexico is a trip we take three times a year to see my grandparents. We went to see the Rio Grande."

-Aleah Bettes (6)

"I was so happy because we got to go tubing on a boat! I loved Nebraska."

-Elizabeth Burgess (6)

"I liked that we got to go water skiing at Lake Powell, and I got up!"

-Cooper Sanders (6)

"We could not go to a lot of places [in Massachusetts] but it was nice to relax and spend time with family. I would love to go back to see my family and the beautiful beach again soon."

-Chiara Sylvia (7)

"Mount Rushmore was super cool, but my favorite part was getting Thomas Jefferson Vanilla ice cream."

-Makenzie Scurlock (8)

"On our trip to Wisconsin we did a lot of fishing and family boat rides. I enjoyed every minute of it!"

-Cole Eisenreich (7)

"I have always wanted to go parasailing, but I have been really scared. It was amazing; it didn't even seem real!"

-Raleigh Greason (8)

"I traveled to Nashville to see my grandfather perform in an S.I.R studio with my aunt as his opening act. It was so cool to watch my family pursuing their dreams. It has given me the confidence to one day pursue my dreams."

-Lily Hardy (8)

"Me and my family went to the South Padre Islands. We were planning to go to Hawaii, but our trip got canceled due to COVID. It was a 15 hour road trip, and we stopped in three places along the way."

-Aaron Hewitt (7)
