

YOU MIGHT THINK WE'D break under the pressure of a pandemic, with changing schedules and multiple quarantines. YOU'D be wrong. WE attend school in cohorts and transitioned from a hybrid schedule to remote in November like pros. YOU might think a year of no clubs and postponed sports gets us down. No way. WE are BETTER FOR IT, participating in club sports and competing in lacrosse, baseball and football championships. YOU might think our friendships grew distant wearing masks 24/7, attending in-person school only twice a week and socially distancing. YOU'D be wrong. WE are BETTER TOGETHER, forming stronger bonds with our friends, family and pets. YOU see, WE BELIEVE it's always a great day to be a Puma. WE DO. And YOU should too.

1. HUDDLED TOGETHER, Leala Lara, May Nichols, Ashley Seavall, Addison Stout and Melissa Pepe, 08, show solidarity. "The key to a great friendship is just being able to talk to them about anything," Stout said. photo by k. mcgarvey 2. INSPIRED BY HIS DAD TO PLAY BASKETBALL, Ryan Pramenko challenges Broden Nelson, 08, to a one-on-one during recess. "The game keeps me mentally in shape. It also gives me something to do. It's a positive activity," Pramenko said. photo by k. Lyons 3. BFFS, Grace Gummelt and Isabella Cole, 08, spend time together during recess. "I BELIEVE that online school has impacted our relationship in a positive way; we see each other more and I really enjoy that," Gummelt said. photo by b. higgins 4. IN THE HALLWAY, Adelaide Hogan, 08, works on her Chromebook. "I BELIEVE that this new schedule has helped me with time management and preparing for high school," Hogan said. photo by d. Jacob
