

Striking a Pose

Students Express Themselves Through Fashion

Grace Dilorio (8) wears her white vans to school, Mar. 25. Dilorio had always enjoyed having a unique style and involving the latest fashion elements into it. "I like wearing vans because they are cute and trendy. I wear them pretty much everyday," Dilorio said.

Photo By: Allie Moroni

Photo By: Mia LeGrande

Izzy Salum (8) walks the halls in her fashionable outfit, Mar. 25. Salum had always taken great pride in her outfits and keeping up with the trends. "I like flannels because they are more unique than other clothing. I wear them once or twice a month. I started wearing them in 6th grade," Salum said.

Photo By: Mia LeGrande

Grace Hildebrand (6) expresses herself through her clothes, Mar. 25. Hildebrand had always enjoyed picking her outfits because of the freedom. "I usually dress comfortably. I really like mom jeans because they are trendy. My favorite colors to wear are light green and gray because they are easy to match things with," Hildebrand said.

Keeping up with the Trends

Students Follow New Fashion Statements

Photo By: Mia LeGrande

Photo By: Mia LeGrande

Elishka Lambert-Gorwyn (8) confidently wears her new jeans to school, Mar. 25. Lambert-Gorwyn had always enjoyed expressing herself through her fashion style. “Mom jeans are very comfortable. I wear them once a week. My sister got me them, so they are special and fashionable,” Lambert-Gorwyn said.

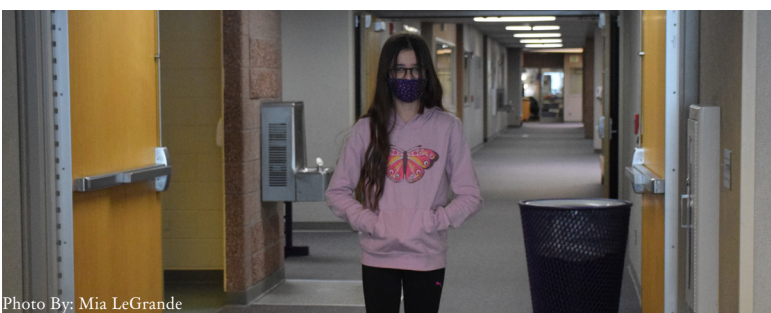

Photo By: Mia LeGrande

Adina Yepishin (6) happily walks the halls at school, knowing she will be able to watch Tik Tok later, Mar. 25. Yepishin always enjoyed Tik Tok because it always had something interesting on. “I like Tik Tok because it has so much variety. I usually use it four hours everyday. My favorite creator is @spencewuah. I like him because he is funny and entertaining,” Yepishin said.

Elin Madison (8) shows her personality through her clothes at school, Mar. 25. Madison had always worn what she wanted and never cared what people thought. “My fashion is mostly gothic. I like this style because it fits me well. Also, I love the contrast of the colors against my skin tone because it adds more individuality,” Madison said.

Being Unique

Students Show Their Personalities Their Own Way

Photo By: Mia LeGrande

Sophie Tobin (8) excitedly wears her outfit to school, Mar. 25. Tobin had always had a unique fashion style. “My fashion style is vintage. I usually dress however I want and wear a bunch of different styles combined. Everyday it is different. My favorite trendy clothes are unique patterns because it adds interesting elements to my wardrobe,” Tobin said.

Photo By: Mia LeGrande

Jonah Rosado (7) catches the school’s attention from his bright pink hair, Mar. 25. Rosado always enjoyed dyeing his hair because he was able to be recognized. “I dyed my hair pink because I felt like it. I like pink hair because I can be found easily and I stand out in a crowd. I have dyed my hair three times. Next, I want to dye it red,” Rosado said.