MAKE A BIG SPLASH

Millie Leonard, So., is making the most of her COVID year. It's not everyone who can compete in four sports, but Millie can. XC, swim, volleyball and the track team all benefit from Millie's ability to do almost anything.

MAKE VERY LITTLE SPLASH

On the left, Ariana Bower, Sr., puts some hard work and focus into her dive. On the right, Christen Mayberry, Sr., impresses the judge behind her. She probably should have earned a perfect 10, but might have gotten marked down to give the other team a chance!

GIRLS SWIM

THE TEAM

Top: Lilly Neville and Rachel Del Valle.
Third: Coach Holm, Alexis Rehorst, Anne Plunkett, Lily Amerine, Maycie Rogers, Kallie Rogers, and Coach M.
Second: Amber Bakken, Ariel Lichtenstein, Macy White, Natalie Austin, Millie Leonard, Hali McLean, and Dakota Strait.
Bottom: Mallory Hajek, Brooklynn Cassens, Peyton Rice, Lillie Ratican, Aneka Sedelmyer, and Kate Davis.

Lily Amerine, Jr., takes to the air on the left while Kate Davis, Jr., comes up for air on the right. Even though swimming is a water-sport, the key to speed is efficiency with your time out of the water.

Thankfully, the swim team didn't have to compete wearing masks like the other indoor sports; that'd be hard to pull off under water. As it was, the team had a solid year in the pool and on the diving boards. Christen Mayberry, Sr., earned 7th place at the state meet on the diving board, while the swimmers kept cutting time off all year long.
