

Center midfielder Tristan Larsen, 11, barely misses a header while a Rock Canyon student hits the ball forward into the back of Larsen's head. "We like to be the first ones to win the ball out of the air so we have a higher chance of keeping possession." In the 2-2 tie game on April 14, both teams frequently used headers as opposed to clearing the ball.