

CAN'T STOP THE BEAT: At a dress rehearsal at the end of March, Leah Taylor '24 and Landon Tyson '21 perform a number from Hairspray. Throughout the production process, actors were quarantined, making it difficult for the company to rehearse. "This year is different in every aspect. Everything is a lot harder in a way. It's like a blessing and a curse because you have a lot of creative freedoms, but also the work is a lot harder and you need to know what you're doing," Tyson said.
