

WHAT'S GOING ON IN THE ONLINE WORLD?

by Kylie Bennett

Everyday we check our phones, read the paper, or listen to the radio to catch up on the latest drama happening in the world - who's dating who, what's the newest trend, and what, or who, is twitter obsessing over today.

Social media is the main medium for teens like us, and it's certainly never short of some controversy or popular fad to dive headfirst into. From Kanye West and Kim Kardashian's -ahem-messy divorce, to Taylor Swift's quest to re-record and gain ownership of all her old records, here's what's going on in the world these days.

Since they first revealed their plans for divorce on January 5th, 2021, there's been no shortage of drama surrounding Kim Kardashian and Kanye West. West - now going by simply "Ye" - seems to have increasingly become opposed to the separation in the last couple months, especially amidst his former wife's newfound relationship with SNL comedian Pete Davidson, or "Skete" as the rapper has dubbed him.

Bizarre music videos smashing the comedian's head, and tracks full of disses towards Davidson have made it clear to the world that Kanye isn't content. Kim, on the other hand, seems to be enjoying life, and loved ones tell sources she seems "genuinely happy" in her new relationship. Their debacle, like most things these days, has played out on social media sites such as twitter and instagram. With the world watching, friends and supporters taking sides, and endless platforms to continue to express themselves on, who knows what'll happen next! But one thing's for sure: whatever it is, it won't be boring.
