

Dylan Knudson
Zander Koch
Lauren Kocher
Luciana Koenig
Kaydance Koeppen
Connor Kohl

Luca Kolla
Maddox Konecny
Ryan Koons
Ashley Kootz
Mia Krajnc
Christopher Kramarczyk

Ethan Kramarczyk
Timothy Kramer
Kerrigan Kreimeyer
Courtney Kucinski
Avery Kummel
Ethan Kuppel

Addison Ladewig
Spencer Lajimodiere
Josephine Lakeland
Tyler Lam
Ayannah Lamb
Gavyn Lancaster

Elizabeth Landi
Owen Landi
Madelyn Lang
Jocelyn Langlois
Rylan Lapham
Eden Larson

River Lassus
Aidan Lawless
Adaline Lawson
Michael Laxamana
Alexandra Leboeuf
Benjamin Lee

Katelyn Lee
Chase Leska
Avery Levering
Anna Levin
River Lewis
Luke Lezama

What makes your name yours?

"I was named after my great grandma, Mary. My first middle name comes from my grandma's name Marianne and, my second middle name Augusta comes from my great grandpa whose middle name was August."
MARY SEIFERT, 07

"I was named after my dad because he had a brother who was named after his dad and he wanted a son named after him."
SEAN MORTON, 08

"My name is Emalee because my mom wanted to name me Emma, but my dad wanted to name me Lee after his grandpa. So they decided to combine the names into Emalee spelled weird."
EMALEE AKAKA, 07

WHAT'S in a NAME?

There are many reasons that someone might have their name. For instance, some people might share a name with a relative or someone famous.

Four Jacks in Spanish

"John is my real name but I go by Jack so to make it easier the teachers call me John."
-JOHN GALE, 08

"It's fine for the most part but its hard when the teacher says Jack and we have to say which one."
-JACK BRANNAN, 08

"It can be hard some times but its a lot easier when teachers just say our last names."
-JACK PEDERSEN, 08

"It's nice being in a class with other Jacks because it's cool that we have the same name."
-JACK LYNAM, 08

Sharing a Name With a Celebrity

"I was born 8 days before Janet Jackson, our birthdays are 8 days apart and my parents thought I was a better dancer then her and since my last name is Jackson they named me Janet."

- JANET JACKSON, STAFF

My Name is From a Different Country

"My name is in a different language because I was born in a different country. When I was in third grade I moved to the U.S.A, but I still know how to speak my first language. My name is also a shade of red."
-SHANNI ELGARAT, 07

My Middle Name is a Place

"My middle name is Parker because my sisters were born in Virginia but my parents were both born in Colorado. My parents wanted us to have a piece of Colorado in us so they gave us all middle names of places in Colorado. My parents still wanted me to have the middle name Parker even though I was born in Colorado, because my sisters' middle names are Bailey and Vail."
- ALLISON HESSE, 07

2 Ava's, 1 Class!

"I think its hard to share a name because people get you mixed up and the attendance gets confusing. I think it's hard to share a name."
-AVA MITTIGA, 07

"Sharing a name with someone is hard because when the teacher calls your name, you don't know if they are talking to you. We are in the same friend group so we have nicknames and we just use those."
-AVA RURUP, 07

"I was named Lucy after the movie A Lion The Witch And The Wardrobe, because my parents liked the name of the little girl and decided that it would be my name."
LUCY FAGERHOLT, 08

"I was named after my grandpa, who was a veteran and was part of the National Guard. His name was James."
JAMES NEWHOUSE, 07

"My parents named me Annika because my dad wanted my name to have a k in it because he liked writing the letter k so my parents decided to name me Annika."
ANNIKA GUSTAFSON, 07

"Charlie, It was a happy name. All of my siblings have three letter names so they weren't sure about it at first. In the end, they picked Charlie."
CHARLIE SEIBOLD, 08